Crl.M.A.No.12021/2014 (Exemption)in BAIL APPLN. 1739/2014

Exemption is allowed subject to just exceptions.

Application stands disposed of.

BAIL APPLN.1738/2014

BAIL APPLN. 1739/2014

These are two FIRs which have been registered filed by the complainant wife against the petitioner. The first FIR i.e. the FIR No.577/2013 has been registered under Sections 420/466/468/471 of the IPC; the second FIR i.e. the FIR No.659/2014 has been registered under Sections 498A/406 of the IPC.

Complainant is also present in Court. Learned counsel for the complainant points out that there are various FIR?s which have registered by the petitioner against the complainant; he is trying to harass her. Parties had married in 2011 after knowing each other for 4 years. They have a minor child aged 2 years who is presently in the custody of the wife. The allegations in the FIR No.577/2013 are that the petitioner had claimed himself claimed himself to be an issueless divorcee at the time when he had got married to the complainant; he had, however, not obtained a valid decree of divorce and the copy of the decree of divorce which is with the complaint shows that it is a forged decree.

Needless to state that these submissions have been denied by the petitioner.

The parties shall appear in person on the next date of hearing to work out a possibility of an amicable settlement. In this intervening period petitioner shall accordingly deposit a sum of Rs.5 lac as an interim measure within a period of one week before the Registrar General of this Court (which shall be kept in an interest bearing FDR) and in that event no coercive steps be taken against him till the next date of hearing. Petitioner will join the investigation as and when summoned by the Investigating Offer.

List on 10.10.2014.

Parties appear in person.

Order dasti under signatures of the Court Master.
